A sensational and extremely high quality true pair of French 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu, patinated bronze and Porphyry electrified candelabras Aux Victoires. Each candelabra is raised by four reeded topie shaped feet below the Porphyry base with richly chased ormolu mounts of lyres at each side and a female maiden pouring water at the front. Each candelabra has a stunning and richly chased patinated bronze winged maiden in classical attire holding an ormolu oil lantern in each hand with foliate and flame designed chasing and two electrified candles at each side. All original patina and gilt.
