A most elegant pair of French 19th century Neo-Classical st. Porcelain de Paris urns. Each urn is raised by a square base below an elegant mottled socle shaped pedestal. The bodies display lovely finely etched gilt leaves with striking bearded satyr handles at each side. At the center are finely detailed hand painted scenes of a woman with a swan on one urn and a maiden with an eagle on the other. At the back are finely etched designs of beautiful scrolled foliate movements and Rinceau scrolls. Also finished on the inside.
