A most attractive pair of French mid 19th century Neo-Grec st. Pâte sur Pâte celadon colored porcelain and ormolu mounted lamps. The pair are raised by a circular mottled and reeded base with two bird claws and scrolled supports.

The baluster shaped porcelain vases have wonderfully detailed classical maidens wearing dresses flowing in the wind. On the other side of each lamp are elegant foliate scrolled designs all below and above Greek key bands. The urns are flanked by two ormolu handles with Greek figures at the top. At the top are the urns original ormolu mounts below the lamp cluster and ivory colored silk pleated shades.
