A rare and most unique pair of French 19th century Neo-Greek st. Patinated Bronze, Ormolu and Arabescato marble side tables/floor lamps. Each impressive side table/floor lamp is raised on three 'S' scrolled pierced legs displaying pawed feet atop circular Ormolu socles and connected by a triangular Ormolu stretcher. Each leg showcases a crowned maiden and palmette designs which flank additional pierced palmette decorations accented by beautiful Ormolu rosettes and smaller scaled falcon busts. Above the base is a wonderfully decorated Ormolu socle adorned with fine lion's heads on the edge and foliate designs throughout. The circular mottled edge Arabescato marble top is secured with an Ormolu lily decorated reserve.

Emerging from the lily is the fluted patinated Verdigris bronze fut with intermittent leaves and a reserve of vultures holding swaging Ormolu chains around their necks.
