A wonderful and very detailed pair of French 19th century patinated bronze statues. Each is raised on a square base with the word "Marine" on one and "Industrie" on the other. The maidens above are in classical dress with their hair in an updo fashion. One maiden sits on a boat design with a net, anchor and staff, signifying marine life. The other is seated on an anvil with tools of industry including a caliper, hammer and motor. All original rich patina throughout.
