A striking pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. ormolu and patinated bronze candlestick lamps. Each lamp is raised by a fine circular base with a beautiful mottled design, three handsome paw feet a patinated bronze support fitted within a most decorative wrap around reeded ormolu band. The tapered central fut displays a superb array of reeded and foliate designs with a central lions head below the impressive richly chased beautiful open winged maiden draped in flowing attire below the elegant circular candle cup.
