A stunning and high quality pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. Ormolu and Rouge Griotte marble candelabras. Each most elegant two arm candelabra is raised by a circular Rouge Griotte marble base above a delicate Ormolu base plate. Above the slender central socle pedestal is a bowl with a richly chased male mask and scrolling patterns leading out to the circular candle cups with decorative glass bobeches. At the center is an impressive and wonderfully detailed Ormolu open winged heron. All original gilt throughout.
