A remarkable pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated bronze and ormolu lamps. Each lamp is raised by three handsome patinated bronze feet with scrolled foliate designs below a striking lightly curved fluted base with a double mottled wrap around band. The beautiful bodies display charming intricately detailed maidens draped in flowing garments dancing with castanets and cymbals. At each side are scrolled handles with wonderfully executed and finely detailed leaves and branches intertwining through them and growing upwards with charming berries centering the elegant mottled ormolu top caps.
