An impressive and large scale pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated bronze and Sienna marble candelabra lamps. Each five arm lamp is raised by an elegant triangular Sienna marble base with concave sides and cut corners decorated with a fine wrap around foliate band. The striking lightly tapered central support displays a beautiful scrolled foliate tripod shaped base and superb fitted Sienna marble plaques leading up to a lovely foliate reserve. The five curved arms above are each adorning with richly chased palmettes and most decorative scrolled elements leading to finely fluted candle cups. All original patina throughout.
