A charming and high quality pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated Bronze lidded urns, stamped P.H. Mourey. Each most handsome urn is raised by a round base with a beaded laurel band and foliate socle pedestal above. The bodies display most decorative spiral fluted patterns at the base below a band of circular reserves. At the mid section are charming richly chased patinated Bronze scenes of playful cherubs, musical instruments and goats. At each side are the richly detailed handles with berried floral movements leading up to the top rim of each urn. At the top are finely detailed patinated Bronze cherubs seated on the removable lids, edged with dentil patterns. The urns are also finished on the interior.
