An outstanding true pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated bronze, ormolu and Belgian Granite candlesticks. Each candlestick is raised by hexagonal granite bases with a bottom wrap around mottled ormolu band and six finely scrolled foliate feet. The right one displays a beautiful patinated bronze maiden seated on a richly chased ormolu dolphin. She is draped in a flowing fabric while holding a beautiful and intricately detailed flower basket on her head. The left one displays a handsome satyr holding a large cornucopia with striking ormolu flowers. He is seated on a finely detailed panther. All original gilt throughout.
