A stunning and most unique pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. silvered bronze and ormolu chandeliers. Each chandelier is centered by an elegant ormolu foliate bottom inverted finial centered by striking pierced scrolled foliate designs. Each of the three arms displays beautiful richly chased masks, delicate pierced palmettes and beautiful frosted glass flames. The elegantly shaped center has a fluted design and fine pierced ormolu foliate designs. Above the three decorative chains is the exceptional top crown with lovely floral and foliate accents.
