A lovely pair of French and German collaboration 19th century Meissen porcelain and ormolu urns mounted into lamps. Each beautiful lamp is raised by a most elegant circular base with a reeded wrap around band below a lovely intricately pierced foliate band and central rosette. The striking cobalt blue porcelain bodies display most decorative fluted gilt socle shaped pedestals and attractive foliate designs. At each side are impressive scrolled white snake handles with foliate accents centering beautiful wrap around interlocking and reeded bands.
