A stunning and very high quality pair of French early 19th century 1st Empire period ormolu and Baccarat crystal présentoirs. Each three tiered centerpiece is raised by three lovely scrolled feet with fine foliate designs, lovely rosettes, and a central mask of a beautiful maiden below an elegant circular base with a finely mottled wrap around Coeur de Rai band. The tapered central support displays a striking richly chased baluster shaped foliate acanthus leaf support and each présentoir retains its original three Baccarat crystal dishes with lovely foliate designs decreasing in size upwards. Above is the superb hoop finial with stunning richly chased blooming flowers tied at the center all in an exquisite satin and burnished finish. All original gilt throughout.
