An exquisite pair of French early 19th century Imari porcelain and ormolu tazzas. Each tazza is raised by a beautiful square ormolu base with concave corners, fine rosettes, and a recessed rectangular reserve below a stunning richly chased wrap around berried laurel band. The elegant fluted socle shaped pedestal support also displays a lovely reeded design and wrap around Les Oves and foliate band. The original Imari plates above display the traditional vivid colors, beautiful scrolled foliate designs throughout, and a central geometric pattern. All original gilt throughout.
