A most elegant pair of French early 19th century Louis XV st. patinated wood armchairs. Each armchair is raised on cabriole legs with carved flowers at the top. The scalloped apron has a richly carved central reserve with a flower in the center flanked by foliate branches on each side. The 'S' scrolled mottled upholstered arms lead to the scalloped back with additional richly carved decorations of foliate scrolls. All original patination throughout and a wonderful wide seats.
