A delightful and high quality pair of French late 19th century Louis XVI st. Rouge de France marble and Ormolu lidded urns. Each most decorative urn is raised by an Ormolu trimmed square Rouge de France marble base with cut corners supporting an elegant round Ormolu socle decorated with foliate motifs. The Rouge de France marble bodies are adorned with finely chased male masks linked with floral garlands and tied ribbons below the mottle necks. Above is the domed lid accented with an Ormolu band and foliate finial, which is removable to utilize the finished interior.
