A handsome and high quality pair of French late 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu and Black Belgium marble Guéridon tables. Each Guéridon is raised by rectangular tapered supports ending with paw feet designs. The three supports are joined by additional bands creating an 'X' form with a central circular rosette and a rosette at each end. The top has the original Black Belgium fitted marble within an ormolu mottled gallery. Extremely elegant and decorative for any interior style.
