A very elegant pair of French Louis XVI st. mid 19th century Gris St. Anne marble and ormolu urns mounted into lamps. The lamps are raised by square ormolu bases with fluted designs and rounded corners. The acanthus leaf fut is above an intertwined beaded band. The baluster shaped Gris St. Anne marble urn is flanked by Greek key handles with swaging floral garlands hang from and held by large bows in the center. Wonderful proportions and retains all of its original gilt.
