An impressive and grand scale pair of French mid 19th century Louis Philippe st. ormolu sconces. Each eight arm sconces are centered by stunning wonderfully executed foliate backplates in a striking satin and burnished finish. A beautiful fluted cornucopia shaped support branches out from the backplate leading to the superb scrolled foliate arms spread over two tiers. Each arm displays lovely pierced foliate movements, fluted designs, and elegant scalloped floral shaped candle cups. Above and at the centers are impressive foliate supports with stunning Baccarat crystal dagger. All original gilt throughout.
