An impressive and large scale pair of French mid 19th century Louis XIV st.

Ormolu sconces. Each richly chased Ormolu sconce is set on a most decorative back plate decorated by large acanthus leaves and a central female figure with her hair braided above draped floral garlands. Above are the five scrolled arms with a hammered design amidst acanthus leaves and floral rosettes. The two central arms are accented with handsome Ram's heads below the foliate bobèche and candle cup. All original gilt throughout.
