A striking and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu candelabras. Each six arm candelabra is raised by a beautiful pierced base with a scalloped triangular shape, fine scrolled foliate feet, beautiful central leaf and elegantly curved support with a most decorative clover lattice pattern. The central supports display unique and most decorative pierced spiral acanthus leaf designs leading up to the arms. Each of the arms displays a beautiful scrolled foliate movement and are adorned with large acanthus leaves leading to richly chased and finely detailed foliate candlecups and floral bobeches. The central arms display additional floral and foliate movements in a striking satin and burnished finished with an eternal flame shaped finial which can be removed to accommodate a sixth candle. All original gilt throughout.
