A spectacular and monumental pair of French Mid 19th Century Louis XVI st. giltwood and white Carrara marble pedestal columns. Each statement making pedestal is raised by a square base with cut corners and a finely carved wrap around tied berried laurel band. Each tapered central support is finished on all sides and displays recessed panels while the front and two sides display a stunning and most impressive richly carved swaging berried laurel garland tied at the center. At each corner are powerful scrolled movements below fluted designs and a beautiful rinceau scrolls and foliate reserves set on a hammered background. The exceptionally shaped curved top highlights the superb satin and burnished finish throughout and supports the original square white Carrara marble top with cut corners and a fine mottled border.
