A sensational pair of Italian 17th century Neapolitan Silver Leaf, Mecca and marble free-standing consoles. Each console is raised by handsome cabriole legs with scrolled feet and acanthus leaves. Above each leg are richly carved concaved foliate reserves. Centering the striking arbalest shaped pierced frieze are decorative and richly carved floral and foliated designs on a fluted background. Above are the original stunning butterfly veneered Sienna marble tops with Vert de Patricia marble fillets at the borders. All original silver and Mecca throughout.
