A uniquely designed pair of Italian 18th century Baroque Period patinated metal and wood sconces. Each three light sconce is centered by an acanthus leaf decorated base plate that introduces the three electrified arms and the two decorative arms on the outside. The three electrified 'C' scrolled arms in the center are decorated with patinated pressed metal scrolling acanthus leaves and an inverted bell shaped candle cup with a pierced gallery atop. The two decorative arms flanking the three central arms are displaying leaf patterns up each arm with budded roses at the end. All original patina throughout.
