A stunning and large scale pair of Italian 18th century Baroque period polychrome and mecca electrified torchières, from Tuscany. Each floor lamp is raised by a most handsome tripod shaped base with scrolled feet centering an acanthus leaf and lattice design. Leading up the central support are decorative movements and patterns displaying the striking combination of the polychrome and mecca finish at the front. Shown with our signature Cedric DuPont Antiques two tone pin tuck silk shades. All original mecca and finish throughout. The silhouette is 6 feet tall.
