A handsome and very unique pair of Italian 18th century Louis XIV st. Walnut chests/side tables from Tuscany. Each chest is raised by elegant block supports with fine scrolled designs. One chest displays four drawers each decorated with beautiful mottled recessed designs while the other displays an exceptional and most unique door with three faux drawers and a fourth faux drawer at the top which flaps open and are decorated in the same manner. The sides each display recessed panels framed within a mottled band while the top displays a fine mottled border each showcasing the Walnut grain. All original patina and hardware throughout.
