A striking and most elegant pair of Italian 18th century Louis XV period walnut armchairs from Venice. Each chair is raised by lovely cabriole legs with fine scrolled feet and richly carved foliate reserves at each corner. The arbalest shaped apron is centered by charming and intricately detailed flowers and displays a fine fillet which extends along each leg and sides. The most decorative scrolled arms also display foliate carvings while the upholstered back support displays a beautiful top foliate and floral carved reserve. Beautiful original patina throughout.
