A lovely and most elegant pair of Italian 18th century Louis XVI Period Kingwood, Tulipwood, Giltwood and Gris St. Anne marble consoles. Each stunning freestanding console is raised by Kingwood topie shaped feet below square tapered legs with Tulipwood filets and inlays. Above each leg are charming socles which support the apron flanked by block reserves in each corner. The two toned Tulipwood and Kingwood apron displays wonderfully inlaid rectangular segments framed by checkered filets and topped with a Giltwood rope twist band. The twisted band frames the fitted Gris St. Anne marble tops, which are finished with an eased edge.
