A very elegant pair of Italian 18th century Louis XVI period mahogany commodes. Each three drawer commode is raised by tapered inlaid legs. Above are two wide drawers with oval ormolu pulls and a central mahogany inlay with ebony keyhole escutcheons. The rectangular mahogany is bordered by cherry with filets of charmwood. The top drawer has a chain link designed inlaid border within a cherry background. Above lays the original Gris St. Anne marble top. All rich and warm patina throughout.
