Available with matching central console item #6289, sold separately.
