A charming and most elegant pair of Italian 18th century Louis XVI period patinated green, giltwood and onyx marble freestanding consoles. Each uniquely narrow console is raised by circular tapered legs with beautiful forest green flutes, giltwood accents and topie shaped feet with finely carved acanthus leaves. Above each leg are handsome block rosettes and finely carved medallions. Most decorative overlapping half circle bands extend along each side and the fronts centered by charming floral reserves. Above are the beautiful onyx tops fitted within thick impressive mottled giltwood bands.
