An exquisite and high quality pair of Italian 18th century Louis XVI Period Venetian st. patinated Wood mirrors. The outer frame of each stunning mirror is decorated by circular rosettes at the four corners, with delicate mottled bands segmenting the frame. Wonderfully carved and hand painted floral garlands accent the frame with foliate and floral garlands flanking acanthus leaves and an urn at the top and bottom. Charming birds holding floral garlands in their beaks flank the central mirror plate, which is surrounded by foliate garlands, bows, and berried foliate designs. All original patina and hand painted accents throughout.
