A stunning and most unique pair of Italian 18th century Neo-Classical st. patinated green, giltwood and Portoro marble freestanding consoles, from Luca. Each console is raised by beautiful patinated green curved intertwined supports with fine giltwood fillets, foliate accents and lovely tied designs. The supports are connected by elegant turned stretchers with richly carved acanthus leaves. Above are the original beautiful Portoro marble tops resting on richly carved giltwood bands with wonderfully carved acanthus leaves.

The impressive and most unique raised back panels retain their original mirrored plates framed within elegant mottled giltwood bands with striking intricately detailed intertwined snakes. All original gilt and patina throughout.

Height to marble top: 36"
