An elegant pair of Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. cream color patinated dining chairs. Each chair has circular tapered legs with giltwood flutes and square curved back legs. Around the top of the front legs is a giltwood leaf design finished with a round giltwood sabot. The front apron is ornate with a lovely giltwood leaf branch design with ribbon flanked by rosette blocks at the corners and rosette garlands decorate the sides. The rectangular pierced back has three columns with giltwood flutes and foliate garland borders. Upholstered seat and adjustable back rest. All original patina.
