A stunning and extremely decorative pair of Italian 19th century giltwood and white Carrara marble wall decor plaques. Each plaque is set in its original giltwood frame with a fine mottled design. The top plaque depicts a centaur at the left with a man draped in a flowing garment resting in a chariot with a young man at his feet and Athena in the background. The bottom plaque depicts castle walls surrounding a classically dressed man seated at a table with a man's head on it and snakes behind him. To his right is a nude woman standing while in the background is another maiden in a flowing dress.
