A striking and most unique pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. Genovese kingwood and tulipwood bombée shaped side tables. Each quarter veneered side table is raised on cabriole legs with finely chased ormolu sabots. With a scalloped frieze and scalloped sides the two drawers are separated with ormolu mounts. The two drawers are centered with ormolu keyhole escutcheons and scrolled design handles. All below the thick moulded edge Vert Antique marble top.
