A beautiful pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and marble consoles. Each free standing console is raised on lovely cabriole legs adorned with large scrolls and opulent foliate. The legs are joined by an X stretcher centered with a fluted urn of overflowing floral garlands. At the pierce frieze is a central seashell with cabochon amidst foliate scrolls that repeat at each side. At the top is the white Carrara marble fitted within a finely carved foliate giltwood gallery. With all original gilt.
