A magnificent pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. carved giltwood mirrors. The moulded rectangular frame curves at the top and is elaborately crowned by a central reserve of scrolled acanthus leaves with cabochons and bordered by acanthus leaves and flower heads amidst fanciful scrolls. Rich carvings of intertwining garland continue on the sides with large acanthus leaf scrolls flanking the corners. At the base of the frame is an acanthus leaf scroll design centered by a cabochon. All original gilt and mirror plates.
