A unique and most decorative pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. patinated and giltwood armchairs. Each armchair is raised by their original caster and elegant patinated cabriole legs with fine giltwood fillets which extend up each leg and along the frieze. The arbalest shaped frieze is centered by a detailed carved giltwood scrolled foliate reserve. Each arm displays a lovely scalloped shape and a cushioned tufted arm rest. The uniquely shaped tufted upholstered back displays a beautiful patinated border with most attractive giltwood fillets. All below the striking richly carved acanthus leaf and foliate top reserve. With all original gilt and patina throughout.

Set of six matching side chairs item #10226 available separately.
