A superb pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. walnut, bone and bronze bombe chests. Each beautifully shaped chest is raised by elegant lightly curved legs with lovely foliate inlaid designs which extend up each side. At the center are three bombe shaped drawers, each decorated with intricately inlaid scenes of hunters on horses chasing their prey and handsome lion head bronze pulls. The sides display striking inlaid foliate designs framed in a diamond shaped band while the top displays an additional detailed inlaid scenes.
