An elegant pair of Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood mirrors. The pair is designed with a bottom swaging berried laurel garland held by mottled circular buttons and inner beaded border. At the top is a central reserve of a richly carved urn of prosperity with foliage. The urn is raised on a platform with decorative flat head giltwood screws. The urn with handles is decorated by a swaging berried laurel garland held by the same mottled circular buttons. All original mirror plates and gilt throughout.
