A stunning and extremely decorative pair of Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. polychrome, mecca, and Notre Dame marble matching consoles and mirrors. Each wall mounted consoles is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with foliate topie shaped feet and acanthus leaf top caps. The straight aprons display fine mottled mecca bands and beautiful most decorative interlocking geometric bands with a superb array of richly carved floral reserves. Each console also retains its original Notre Dame marble tops with a fine mottled border. Above are the original mirrors, also retaining their original mirror plates framed within the same elegant mottled mecca borders and beautiful geometric and floral rosette bands. All original mecca and patina throughout. Mirrors and consoles are available for purchase separately.
