A most handsome and unique pair of Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. marble, ormolu, giltwood and cherry wood chests/side tables. Each chest, which can also be used as bedside tables, are raised by rounded feet below richly carved giltwood mounts. Leading up each side are lightly scrolled tapered columns with fine foliate carved giltwood capitals. At the center are three drawers, two of which display richly chased foliate and floral cornucopias ormolu keyhole escutcheons and one door. Above are the original rectangular white Carrara marble tops. All original gilt and hardware throughout.
