A stunning and extremely decorative pair of Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. ebonized Fruitwood, giltwood, and slate side tables. Each table is raised by a striking triangular base with mottled giltwood sides and handsome most impressive paw feet. The central supports display elegant urn shapes at the base adorned with fine foliate designs below the exceptional and most unique branches leading upwards with beautiful lightly curved designs. The dodecagon shaped display tiers retain their original fitted slate tops framed within superb beaded giltwood bands.
