An impressive pair of Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. giltwood and Rosso Levanto marble mirrored consoles. Each console is raised by fine topie feet below the decorative bottom tier with beautiful curved designs and delicate fillets with striking column supports at each side and the original mirrored backplates. Each column displays a lightly tapered reeded design with exceptional scrolled foliate designs at the base and lovely reeded floral carvings. The straight frieze displays a striking thick fluted design with palmettes at each corner and a superb Les Oves band all below the original Rosso Levanto marble top. All original gilt throughout. Available with complimentary pair of mirrors, item# 13033, sold separately.
