A truly stunning pair of Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. marble pedestals. The square tapered pair of pedestals are raised by square mottled edge white Carrara marble bases. The tapered column with cut corners have a central butterfly veneered Red Lavanto marble framed within a green and white veined marble. Above are two half round marble trims with a central Red Lavanto band topped with a White Carrara mottled shelf. This pair of pedestals are finished on all sides and can be displayed in the center of any setting.
