A sensational and palatially scaled pair of Italian 19th century Rosa Terrazzo urns and pedestals. Each three piece urn and pedestal is raised on a square mottled plinth below the tapered shaft displaying recessed panels on all four sides. A wonderfully sculpted rosette centers the front of each pedestal in front of a wrap around recessed band. Above a fluted band are additional mottled and bull nose bands before introducing the impressive urns. Each urn is supported on a handsome inverted socle showcasing alternating Fleur de Lys and Seashell reserves. Large scale sculpted handles continue up each side of the urns and are connected above by a finely mottled band below seashell reserves.

*Wonderful presence and attention to detail throughout.
