Dimensions as Center Table: L: 73" D: 62"
