A lovely pair of Italian early 19th century Louis XVI st. Giltwood wall brackets. Each beautiful wall bracket displays a finely carved bust of a cherub with palmettes atop his head and surrounded by scrolling foliate designs accented by reeded and lattice cuts. Above is a large scale band of Les Oves patterns before a mottled edge which leads to the display shelf. The shelf follows the shape of the wall brackets below with a protruding front block before being finished on top with a lattice pattern.
